

House Resolution No. 1765

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the Arnold Home Show, which will hold its First Annual Show on April 17 and April 18, 2004, at the Fox C-6 Service Center; and

Whereas, sponsored by the Rock Newspaper, the Arnold Home Show will allow exhibitors to display a wide variety of products and services related to new home construction and home improvement projects; and

Whereas, as the largest city in Jefferson County with a population of 20,082, Arnold has grown since its incorporation in 1972 with a business community that includes an array of business types such as large national retailers, retail chains, manufacturers, and family-owned business; and

Whereas, the Arnold Home Show creates a single place where representatives from all kinds of industries related to the building and construction industry can gather to present their products and services; and

Whereas, part of the proceeds from the First Annual Arnold Home Show will go to the Fox Stadium Club; and

Whereas, some of the participants of the Arnold Home Show are realtors, landscapers, car and boat dealerships, furniture stores, recreation vehicles and camper dealers, water softener companies, and gourmet food companies:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to all those dedicated individuals affiliated with the First Annual Arnold Home Show and further extend to them our very best wishes for continued success in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the First Annual Arnold Home Show.
